Eleuterio J. Mesa vs. Department of Education; Case No. 11-AA13T

Management was represented by Lay Representative Robert Koss and Department of Education Deputy Superintendent Taling Taitano was present. Attorney Patrick Ceville represented employee Eleuterio Mesa who was present.

Employee counsel reinstated his motion to dismiss certain charges because of Valerie Kaipat’s (witness) refusal to return for further examination, which was considered and denied by a previous motion. Management objected to the motion and stated that the decision was already made and should stand. By a vote of 6-0 the motion was denied.

Mr. Civile indicated that the next witness was not able to attend because of illness. He contends that witnesses making such excuses may be an issue. The chairman instructed DOE to order through its Superintendent that Stephanie Martinez appear as a witness at the March 12, 2013 hearing. A motion was made and the motion carried by a vote of 6-0.
