

BEFORE THE
GUAM CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION
BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS

IN THE MATTER OF:

Barbara Janssen,

Employee,

vs.

Department of Education,

Management.

GRIEVANCE APPEAL
CASE NO. 13-GRE-04

JUDGMENT

Employee Barbara Janssen filed this grievance appeal on April 12, 2013. Specifically, Janssen was grieving the failure of the Department of Education to pay out regular increments following the issuance of Executive Order 2011-14, which was issued by then-acting Governor Raymond Tenorio and which froze salary increments across the executive branch for all classified employees. On August 29, 2013, the parties appeared before the Commission and represented that Janssen had received a portion of her past due increment following the issuance of Executive Order 2013-004, which lifted the freeze. On October 1, 2013, the Commission received information during a status conference conducted by its staff that Janssen had received all amounts due to her. In light of this information, coupled with an absence of action by Janssen to otherwise move this grievance toward further hearing, the Commission hereby dismisses this matter.

So ordered and adjudged this 27th day of May, 2014.
