CSC RESOLUTION NO: 2006-010

RELATIVE TO OUTSTANDING WORK BY THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION STAFF

Whereas, the Organic Act established a merit system for the government of Guam; and

Whereas, the Guam Legislature established the Civil Service Commission to oversee such merit system; and

Whereas, the work of the Civil Service Commission staff has been to ensure that the actions taken by the government of Guam agencies and departments are to be in compliance with the Organic Act, local legislations, rules and regulations that regulate the rights of the parties; and

Whereas, over the course of time, the Civil Service Commission has been known to take controversial positions that requires it to follow the law; and

Whereas, such action by the Civil Service Commission has been done uniformly and fairly; and

Whereas, the Civil Service Commission staff has acted steadfast in ensuring that the government of Guam faithfully follows the Organic Act and the local legislation; and

Whereas, the recent public laws 28-68 and 28-113 revamped the authority of the Civil Service Commission; and

Whereas, nine (9) employees of the Civil Service Commission staff were transferred with a number of duties and responsibilities that were formerly done by the Civil Service Commission; and

Whereas, these employees of the Civil Service Commission handled their duties and responsibilities in a professional manner that has brought credit to the Civil Service Commission; and

Whereas, some of these duties and responsibilities that were undertaken includes: conducting classification and salary studies; creation of new classes of positions, reassignment of pay grades and amendments to class standards; review of classification of positions; classification and pay appeals; personnel actions and desk audits; maintain classification standards; conducted Employee Orientations, Ethics, Adverse Action, EEO and Grievance training; responded to employee complaints; provided case management service in adverse actions; personnel actions and grievances, conducted investigations on the Mini-Hatch Act, the Whistleblower and Equal Employment Opportunity complaints; executed the programs and mandates of the Civil Service Commission; ensuring that the budgetary process is met; handling the administrative requirements of the office, and

Whereas, the Civil Service Commission did not have an adequate opportunity to thank these employees for their hard work and dedication to their job and to the government of Guam; NOW THEREFORE, the Civil Service Commission hereby commends Tony C. Aguon; Maria L.G. Cruz; Elaine M. Faculo-Gogue, Roland P. Fejarang; Daniel J. Hattig; Daniel D. Leon Guerrero; Ramon T. Lizama; Zina Pangelinan-Charfauros; and Rachel G.

Be It Resolved that:
