CSC RESOLUTION NO. 2009-001

RELATIVE TO THE APPOINTMENT OF
MS. NAOMI EVE LUJAN-GONZALES
AS THE NEXT EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION

WHEREAS, the position of Executive Director for the Civil Service Commission became vacant on September 19, 2008; and

WHEREAS, on September 30, 2008, the Honorable Felix P. Camacho, Governor of Guam, informed the members of the Civil Service Commission to consider Ms. Naomi Eve Lujan-Gonzales for the position of Executive Director; and

WHEREAS, the Commission believes that the selection of a permanent executive director is critical for the stability of operations and for the continuity of the services it provides to employees and officials of the government; and

WHEREAS, the Commission met with Ms. Naomi E. Lujan-Gonzales on October 14, 2008 and determined through her education, training, and experience that she possesses the qualifications to lead the Commission and its staff, and judging from her demeanor and communication skills to effectively interact with employees and government officials.

NOW THEREFORE, the Civil Service Commission hereby agrees as follows:

1. That on October 14, 2008, by unanimous vote, appointed Ms. Naomi E. Lujan-Gonzales as the next Executive Director of the Civil Service Commission.
2. That her appointment be submitted to the Governor for his immediate approval pursuant to 4 GCA §4405.
3. That after the Governor's approval, this resolution be transmitted to the Guam Legislature for their approval.

SO RESOLVED AND DULY AND REGULARLY ADOPTED this 16th day of October 2008.
