HISTORY

The creation of the Guam Civil Service Commission (CSC) was first contemplated in the Organic Act of Guam under §1422c, which states,

“The legislature shall establish a merit system and, as far as practicable, appointments and promotions shall be made in accordance with such merit system. The Government of Guam may by law establish a Civil Service Commission to administer the merit system. Members of the Commission may be removed as provided by the laws of Guam.” [cited in part]

However, it was not until August 7, 1967, with the passage of Public Law (PL) 9-86 that the CSC was actually created. The creation was prompted by a letter from then Governor Manuel F.L. Guerrero, which was submitted to the Ninth Guam Legislature to establish a CSC, separate from any operating department of the government in order to afford balance between the needs of the institution and rights of the employee.

Civil Service Commission and the Covid-19 Pandemic Emergency

The Covid-19 pandemic created a vast challenge to Guam and the Civil Service Commission requiring mental focus in the implementation of constant changing restraints in the health and safety protocols to be able to make the office safe.

On March 2020, Guam's initial Covid-19 infections and deaths occurred. The Governor declared a pandemic emergency, ordered island wide "lockdown," and declared PCOR-1 to thwart the spread of Covid-19. The CSC was categorized as a nonessential agency during the emergency. During that period the staff remained at home and worked remotely.

The CSC Team worked at home and occasionally in the office to update board calendars, receive email documents, appeals, adverse actions, complaints, and provided guidance and post audit personnel actions while concurrently redesigning the office to make necessary changes to enhance a safe environment.

After seventy-seven (77) days, the Team returned to work and instantly organized and implemented safety protocols. CSC staff held zoom meetings to be informed on new protocols, coordinated work efforts, and updates. On May 28, 2020 the Civil Service Commission restarted business.

CSC was well-organized in acquiring supplemental resources to deal with Covid-19 Emergency. CSC procured Covid-19 protective equipment, sanitation supplies, and acrylic splash shields. In addition it made major upgrades to the inflexible and slow CSC website to enable live streaming of board hearings, activation of zoom hearings, software upgrades, televisions, Ipads, and related devices to conform to essential safety protocols in order to conduct business in a safe manner and further formulating agency Covid-19 safety protocols.

In October 2020, CSC experienced another Covid-19 crises due to an upward spike of Covid-19 infections. The Governor declared PCOR-1. After two-and-a half months, due to the community's support, the Covid-19 infections decelerated and the Governor declared PCOR-2 that was less restrictive effective January 15, 2021.

The pandemic crisis forced the rescheduling of board appeal hearings for adverse action appeals, grievance appeals, and personnel action reviews.

The CSC Team thanks the CSC Commissioners for their support, patience, hard work, and dedication in the performance of its duties and responsibilities, especially during the pandemic emergencies.

Special thanks to the Governor Lou A. Leon Guerrero, Lt. Governor Josh F. Tenorio and staff for their successful leadership, plans, and efforts in mitigating Covid-19 pandemic. Thank you Guam Legislature for supporting the Civil Service Commission.

Finally, CSC, extends a huge thanks to the people of Guam that worked tirelessly to continue to provide essential and normal services to make life more sustainable on Guam.

Biba Guam!
